

Public Archaeology Project Assistants

Young Canada Works in Heritage Organizations - National Trust for Canada

Employment Term: 2021-05-10 - 2021-08-20

Hourly Wage: $17.00

Number of Positions: 2

Two Public Archaeology Project Assistants will help the Saskatchewan Archaeological Society undertake archaeological research at Fort Carlton in partnership with SaskParks. This project focuses on historical events related to the fur trade at this significant site. It will include a public archaeology component that may be delivered in person, or virtually, depending on current health directives. The project will include excavations, artifact identification and cataloguing, data analysis and a project reporting component.

Qualifications:

- Candidates should have experience in archaeological method and theory, preferably with a focus on historical or fur trade archaeology.
- Ideally, the candidate will have completed, or be near completion of a Bachelor's degree in archaeology or another closely related discipline such as History or Indigenous Studies.
- Computer competency in Word, PowerPoint, Excel and Outlook is required and experience with a graphic design or database program would be an asset.
- This project involves a human-interest component and applicants should have experience and be comfortable working with diverse audiences and public speaking.

The Saskatchewan Archaeological Society encourages candidates from the Government of Canada's job equity groups (i.e., women, people with disabilities, Aboriginal people, and members of visible minorities) to self-identify. The SAS fosters a safe and welcoming environment for self-identification.

Young Canada Works-Summer Jobs eligibility requirements require that candidates be 30 years of age or younger at the start of the position and be a current student who is returning to school full time in the fall of 2021. A background reference check will be required, and the successful candidate will need to hold a valid driver's license as well as provide a Criminal Record Check with the Vulnerable Sector.

Application Deadline: April 14, 2021

Although we appreciate all applications, only short-listed candidates will be contacted. To apply, please submit an application through the Young Canada Works website or send a personalized cover letter and curriculum vitae in confidence to the mailing address or email below:
